Kathleen Moroz, LMSW

Kathleen Moroz holds a Master's Degree in Social Work from the University of Illinois-Chicago and a Master's of Educational Administration from Governors' State University in Illinois, and is a member of the National Association of Social Workers. She has over 20 years experience as a therapist working with adults, children, and adolescents in schools, the juvenile court system, and the outpatient setting. Kathleen is trained in Cognitive Behavior Therapy from the Beck Institute and conducts cognitive behavioral therapy with adults and children. She has extensive training and experience in behavioral interventions and has successfully assisted parents and school staff with a wide range of conduct problems at home and school. Kathleen also uses neurofeedback along with cognitive behavior therapy to treat adults and children. She has additional experience in brief therapy, play therapy, and family therapy techniques. Kathleen uses a variety of therapeutic techniques and incorporates the individual's support system in therapy to maximize therapeutic outcomes.
