Dawn Vollink, LMSW

Dawn Vollink is a licensed therapist who joined Behavioral Health Resources in 2000. She holds a bachelor's degree from Hope College and earned her Master's in Social Work degree from Western Michigan University. Prior to joining Behavioral Health Resources, Dawn was an inpatient counselor at Fieldstone Center and worked in private practice with Child and Family Psychological Services in Kalamazoo. She currently serves as an Adjunct Professor in the Holistic Health Department at Western Michigan University. Dawn specializes in women's issues, relationship issues, treatment of depression, gay, lesbian and transgender issues, bipolar disorder, borderline personality disorder and healing from a difficult past. She believes that individuals are the sum total of life's experiences and how each of us internalized these experiences. Recovery centers on uncovering and amending these internal messages.
