Anne Winsor, LLP, LPC

Anne Winsor holds a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and Criminal Justice from Indiana Wesleyan University, and a Master's Degree in Counseling Psychology from Ball State University in Muncie, IN. She is a member of the National Board of Certified Counselors. Anne has experience working with adolescents involved in the legal system providing group, individual and family therapy. In addition, she has over six years of experience in substance abuse services in individual and group settings. In addition to substance abuse, Ann's specialties include marital counseling, legal issues, perinatal and post-partum depression, anxiety, Christian counseling, Moral Reconciliation Therapy, and grief counseling. She strives to provide therapeutic services that are both objective and nonjudgmental. Ann's philosophy centers on cheering people on to mastering their goals. Her sincere hope is to see people leave therapy with an improved outlook, recognizing life's lessons, and achieving their hopes for the future.
